Existing members and prospective applicants intending to participate in the 84th session of the Indian History Congress are kindly urged to peruse the information provided below.

RENEWAL ORDINARY MEMBERSHIP

- ✦ The facility of membership renewal is for a delegate who enrolled as an ordinary member in any previous session of the Indian History Congress.
- ✦ A delegate seeking to renew membership for the 84th session is advised to exclusively utilise the online form accessible on the official website of the Indian History Congress. Please note that no offline method of application and payment for membership will be accepted or entertained.

(Note: Kindly read carefully the guidelines and documentary requirements provided at the beginning of the online form)

- ✦ The Renewal Membership Fee for the 84th session is ₹500/- (excluding the payment gateway charges).
 - * The option to proceed with payment will be accessible to delegates at the final stage of the online form. At this stage, they will be prompted to provide their billing details for the transaction.
 - * Accepted payment methods include UPI/QR Code, Debit/Credit Card, Net-Banking, and Digital Wallets (any other form of payment method will be rejected).
- ✦ An application for membership renewal will be considered complete only upon successful payment of the membership fee. Following the successful submission of the application, the Secretary's office will conduct a review of the provided details before issuing the Renewal Membership Receipt via email.

(Note: It is advised to ensure the accuracy of the provided details and documents. In the event that any discrepancies are identified during or after the review process, your application may be rejected, and the membership fee forfeited.)

- ✦ The deadline for membership renewal is midnight on November 30, 2025.

In the event of a delay in the submission of the membership fee, members have the option to avail on-site registration at the 84th session of the Indian History Congress to participate as delegates. It is important to note that individuals opting for on-site registration will not be permitted to vote in the election of the Executive Committee.

PAPERS FOR THE SESSION

There are six sections in the annual session of the Indian History Congress, where papers will be presented simultaneously, namely:

- I. Ancient India
- II. Medieval India
- III. Modern India
- IV. Countries other than India
- V. Archaeology
- VI. Contemporary India (covers the period since 1947)

Note: Every copy of the paper submitted for Presentation at the 84th session, should bear the following details:

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Name(s) of the Author(s) | 2. AM/LM Number(s) of the author(s) |
| 3. Email-id (prefer personal email-id) | 4. Place of Work/Residence |
| 5. Section in which the member wishes to present the paper | 6. Nomination for the Best Prize (optional)
[Age limit: 45 years] |
| 7. Title of the Paper | |

Members are kindly requested to submit their papers only through the PAPER SUBMISSION PORTAL on the official website (the portal will open on 15th October, 2025). Once a paper is submitted, it will be treated as the final submission, and multiple submissions of the same paper will result in its rejection. Papers received by midnight on the 10th of December, 2025, will only be listed for presentation during the session. Papers submitted after the specified deadline will not be considered for presentation. No supplementary list of papers will be issued under any circumstances. On-spot paper submissions at the IHC session venue will not be accepted. Each member is permitted to submit only one paper in one section and a maximum of two papers in two different sections, either as an author or a co-author. (Members must read the detailed guidelines regarding the requirements and eligibility of paper submission in the Paper Submission Portal)

Please keep in mind the following additional points when submitting papers:

1. Papers must be written in English, word-processed, and double-spaced. The paper should be uploaded only in WORD (.doc/.docx) file format. Please refrain from submitting hard copies or uploading the soft copy of the paper in PDF format.
2. Word limit: 3500 words (including endnotes). Any paper exceeding the word limit will not be eligible for inclusion in the Proceedings. The paper submitted should be in Times New Roman font, font size 12, double-spaced.
3. References should be double-spaced and placed at the end of the paper, numbered continuously throughout the entire document (not per page).

4. When referencing printed books, the conventional system should be followed: Author's name, Title of the book, Place of publication, and Year of publication, in that sequence. For well-known journal abbreviations such as JIH, JASB, JRAS, EI, IHR, IESHR, and JESHO, utilise them without further clarification. Forms like 'ibid.' and 'op. cit.' are recommended for conciseness.
5. Transliteration should be consistent and adhere to one of the standard systems. Diacritical marks are necessary for papers submitted to Sections I and II.
6. If maps, diagrams, and photographs are provided, they should be limited in number and prepared in a format ready/suitable for printing.
7. A HARD COPY of the paper must be submitted by the member at the time of the presentation to the President of the section.

Note: A List of Papers will be accessible online on the IHC website by the 15th of December, 2025, allowing delegates of the 84th session to verify the inclusion of their names. There will be no supplementary list of papers for the papers submitted after the deadline. Every effort will be made to incorporate all papers recommended for publication by the Sectional Presidents and referees into the printed volume of the Proceedings. However, the editors' decision will be final. Due to space constraints, the selection may be limited, and individual papers may be edited and shortened. Members are kindly requested to understand and cooperate with this process.

NOTE: While a member can nominate their paper for multiple awards, only one award may be granted for their paper.

The announcement and conferment of prizes for papers submitted at the 83rd session will take place during the 84th session.

PROCEEDINGS VOLUME

It is anticipated that the printed volume of the Proceedings of the 83rd session (held at Punjabi University, Patiala) will be prepared in the form of a limited printed copy for free distribution to its members who were registered at the 83rd session.

The Indian History Congress is the principal professional organisation of Indian historians, which, for the last ninety years, has consistently advocated for the advancement of rational and scientific enquiry, and has promoted the professional interests of historians as educators and researchers. Its success in pursuit of these objectives depends entirely on your support for this organisation and its cause.

Looking forward to meeting you at Government Brennan College, Dharmadam, Thalassery, Kannur, Kerala.

With warm regards and best wishes,

Yours Sincerely,

(Prof. Syed Ali Nadeem Rezavi)

Secretary, Indian History Congress
